

Antitrust Guidelines/Announcement

It is understood that in today's meeting we will not discuss any issues which would violate antitrust guidelines.

Antitrust violations occur when two or more persons from the same industry or profession discuss suppliers, processes, prices or operations. Remove yourself from any conversation that would change how business is conducted because of an agreement among competitors, and notify the other parties to your discussion of their obligation to cease all such discussions if any begin.

Avoiding violations of the antitrust laws is the responsibility and legal obligation of the ANJC Board of Directors, Officers, consultants, committee members, representatives, or ANJC general member. Any discussion of current prices or discounts with a competitor should be avoided.

If you have any concerns regarding any topics of discussion, please notify the ANJC Executive Director who will confer with ANJC legal counsel.
